Callan Bergmann is a New York City based performer who is currently performing on Broadway in Kinky Boots. His other NYC credits include CATS, Cinderella, Brigadoon, Gentlemen Prefer Blondes, Silence The Musical, and Lucky Guy. He has toured the country with the musicals Pippin and Mary Poppins, and also premiered the first German language production of Mary Poppins in Vienna, Austria. He has performed regionally at reputable theaters such as Papermill Playhouse, Pittsburgh CLO, The MUNY, and North Shore Music Theatre. Callan's film and television credits include SMASH, Lovestruck the Musical, the David Letterman Show, and Late Night with Stephen Colbert. He holds a BFA in Musical Theatre with a minor in Dance from Point Park University. When he isn't performing Callan enjoys teaching dance. He has taught dance Masterclasses all across the United States and Canada.

Class description: Class will include a full body warmup that touches upon jazz, ballet, and modern technique including stretching and conditioning. Short sequences across the floor are followed by a main combination featuring choreography from real Broadway shows as well as original choreography. Proper execution of steps will be stressed along with the intention behind the steps!! At the end of class, Callan leaves some time to talk about his own journey and answer questions that students (or parents!) might have.
